Reasons why you should attend Earlscliffe

Welcome to Earlscliffe College

Earlscliffe is an independent sixth form college Earlscliffe is based on the Kent coast, yet only 53 minutes from central London

Earlscliffe was established in 2012 in Folkestone, East Sussex, and provides GCSE, A Level, Diploma in Business and Foundation Year courses to students aged 15 - 17.

Its academic reputation is high, having achieved national rankings of number 38 in The Telegraph's 'Top 100 Schools by A-level results' in 2015 and number 45 in the Department for Education's table of independent boarding schools teaching A-levels in 2018.

Earlscliffe is within walking distance of the new high-speed train link to London St Pancras.

The journey takes only 55 minutes and students regularly visit the capital, for musical theatre visits and gallery exhibitions. Equally travel to Europe is very easy with travel time to Paris being less than two hours.

Earlscliffe College offers the best of British education: the so-called 'gold standard' A-Level programme in traditional subjects, providing students with the best academic preparation for entry into the world's most competitive universities.

The College offers a breadth of experience and a variety of rigorous supplementary activities that contribute to a student's educational development.

Students can join Earlscliffe to complete A Levels in two years or may join at 15 years old to complete the International Transition Year course first to develop their subject knowledge and command of spoken and written English.

As a small college, each student will find support and encouragement as they at first settle in and then proceed to make their own mark on the college.

Students' progress through A-level studies and, with guidance, make university applications in their final year.

It is a unique experience, drawing on the traditions and methods of Oxbridge colleges, top public schools, Ivy League universities and innovative best practice.
