

Welcome from the A+ Global Education UK Director

Dear Parents

Welcome to A+ Global Education UK.

Thank you for considering our company in the selection and placement of your child in the United Kingdom for their education. It is a privilege to help and support you on this exciting journey that you are about to take. As a father of four children, I understand just how important it is ensure that our children have a rewarding and challenging educational experience and that above all, that they are safe and cared for. This is the top priority for A+ Global Education UK. All of our work is guided by the Code of Practice of the Association for the Education and Guardianship of International Students (AEGIS) in securing the very best school and homestay setting for your child.

A+ Global Education has 15 years' experience of supporting international students to realise their dream of studying overseas. The company has established a strong reputation for both professionalism and a very personal service responding to the individual needs of each family and student.

With 25 years' experience of working in the UK education sector as a Head of Department, Housemaster, Registrar, Head of International Recruitment and Deputy Headmaster, I am able to offer you guidance through the range of questions that you will have as you consider the best option for your child. It can appear a daunting process, especially when you are far away, but at A+ Global Education, we can support you each step of the way.

As Director of the A+ Global Education UK, I am always pleased to help at any point. Please do contact me at aplusglobaleducationuk@btinternet.com with any questions that you have and I will be happy to respond.

An international education is a truly enriching and life defining experience and I look forward to getting to know you and your child and to helping you to enjoy the wonderful opportunities available studying in the UK.

Kind regards

Dr David Smith
